

Camper Code of Conduct

To Parents:

The goal for each child attending a summer camp program is to have an experience of Christian community in which the camper is safe, grows spiritually and socially. During a week in camp, in the course of activities, it is natural that there will be conflicts within groups and between campers and their counselors. It is in resolving these conflicts - in the give and take of negotiation - that some of the most important lessons of a week at camp are learned.

Occasionally, however, behavior on the part of a camper may become so disruptive as to require removal from a week of camp because conflicts cannot be resolved. Therefore, the following guidelines are presented for children during their week in camp. Parents are asked to review these guidelines with their children.

DEAR CAMPERS:

In signing that you have read the Camper Code of Conduct on the Registration Form you are agreeing to the following:

CAMPER CODE OF CONDUCT:

1. Use language appropriate for a Christian community.
2. Respect the rights, privacy and property of others.
3. Respect the property and facilities of HMLRC.
4. Wear appropriate clothes for activities as suggested by camp staff.
5. Follow camp schedule (mealtimes, lights out, etc.)
6. Do not engage in any acts of physical, sexual or verbal abuse (camper/camper or camper/staff).
7. Abide by the rules and regulations of the camp and HMLRC.
8. Campers are encouraged to participate in all activities to the best of their ability.
9. Campers may leave their assigned group only with the permission of the counselor.

I agree to abide by all regulations governing personal conduct and use of HMLRC property. I am aware that I am expected to cooperate and participate in camp activities. If I do not cooperate, or become a hindrance to the camp program, I understand I may be sent home.
